LOGNOTE -- Chief, Operations Group, 23 May 1984

5. (Williams) During luncheon today Witherow remarked that he had found the recent frequent visits of his staff to FBIS Headquarters to be of the highest benefit, not only to the visitors themselves but to their staffs as well. He wants to send [] here fairly soon, and [] sometime in the fall, if we can handle them. I said we could accommodate them most any time once the summer rotation crunch was past and that we too found the visits useful.

STAT

Sklarewitz tried hard to sell him on the advantages of a 13 meter dish, sted 10, for the next Crowsley installation. He listened intently.
